

Motto:

*"A god-face is buried inside me:
An antique statue, pure, calm force
I will not rest until I call it forth.
Although all the world's sins are laid upon it,
I'll not rest till I see the renaissance of it."*

Sándor Reményik, God Face

My Broken RENAISSANCE

Contemporary Art Evening
and with Canissi - The Golden Age Fashion Show

Date: September 18, 2025, 7 p.m.

Venue: Kincsem Palace, 1053 Budapest, Reáltanoda street 12

Organizer: David Art Gallery, Budapest

Nothing is accidental in the world of My Broken RENAISSANCE.

Symbols, messages, contrasts – the past takes on new meaning.
This is not an exhibition. It is a contemporary ritual. A one-night artistic journey.

The history and atmosphere of Kincsem Palace provide the perfect backdrop for an evening celebrating timeless art, inspiration, and the power of human perseverance.

The event focuses on Renaissance philosophy and aesthetics, interpreted in a modern way. We offer an exclusive program for guests, aimed at prominent art collectors, supporters, and partners. By exploring the parallels between the history of Kincsem and Renaissance art, we provide a unique experience for participants. Guests will not simply visit an exhibition but will become part of a journey through time. The spirit of the Renaissance comes to life in every corner of the palace: the lights, music, gastronomy, and works of art all become part of a grand story. During the evening, guests discover their own Renaissance through various experiences, as the history of Kincsem Palace and the legendary racehorse comes to life.

Why should you be there?

This evening is not just an artistic experience, but also a cultural reflection: questions about our world, answers in the language of art. My Broken Renaissance is a creative mirror, broken, yet brilliant. The event aims not only to provide a spectacular presentation, but also to build community, create value, and open up to a new generation interested in art and development.
